

Dear Client,

As a response to Florida's wave of foreclosures, InCharge offers assistance to homeowners throughout the state who are experiencing financial hardships and are struggling to meet their mortgage payments. Our certified housing counselors can provide you with free, confidential foreclosure prevention counseling that can help you take your next steps with greater confidence.

While every situation is unique, a foreclosure prevention counseling session can help you understand the paths that may be open to you, such as loan modification programs, forbearance, repayment plans and others. You and your counselor will review your individual situation and discuss possible steps toward your goals of stopping foreclosure and saving your home.

Seeking professional assistance from a certified housing counselor can help you take an impartial look at your finances and may increase the likelihood of you coming to a realistic and achievable agreement with your lender. During your session, your counselor will assess your financial situation and finalize the session after reviewing the required supporting documentation summarized on the enclosed "Borrower's Require Documents List." Please gather and complete the required documents and email, fax or mail all documents to us as soon as possible.

Thank you for allowing us to service you.

Sincerely,

InCharge Housing Team

I agree to hold harmless any InCharge Debt Solutions employee, agent or volunteer from liability, claims, suits, action, or demand asserted against or incurred by InCharge Debt Solutions as a result of advice or counseling provided.

I authorize InCharge Debt Solutions and its representative to speak on my behalf with other companies, agencies, or service providers regarding my financial matters including loan applications, debt obligations, and medical bills.

I give permission for InCharge Debt Solutions to pull my credit up to 3 times within the next 24 months and follow up with me during that same time for the purpose of program evaluation.

I understand that I may not be approved for a loan. I authorize the lender or servicer to speak with InCharge Debt Solutions or its representative regarding my loan.

I understand that InCharge Debt Solutions may have a fee-for-service partnership with lenders whereby there's an arrangement that involves InCharge collecting payment directly from the lender for services provided by the organization that satisfies a pre-negotiated contract or agreement.

FORECLOSURE PREVENTION COUNSELING - I understand that InCharge Debt Solutions may receive government and/or private funding from programs and other entities, including, but not limited to, the National Foreclosure Mitigation Counseling ("NFMC") program. You must complete this certification if you are requesting a mortgage modification with respect to a rental property.

By checking this box and initialing below, I am requesting a mortgage modification under MHA with respect to the rental property as previously described and I hereby certify under penalty of perjury that each of the following statements is true and correct with respect to that property:

1. I intend to rent the property to a tenant or tenants for at least five years following the effective date of my mortgage modification. I understand that the servicer, the U.S. Department of the Treasury, or their respective agents may ask me to provide evidence of my intention to rent the property during such time. I further understand that such evidence must show that I used reasonable efforts to rent the property to a tenant or tenants on a year-round basis, if the property is or becomes vacant during such five-year period. Note: The term "reasonable efforts" includes, without limitation, advertising the property for rent in local newspapers, websites or other commonly used forms of written or electronic media, and/or engaging a real estate or other professional to assist in renting the property, in either case, at or below market rent.

2. The property is not my secondary residence and I do not intend to use the property as a secondary residence for at least five years following the effective date of my mortgage modification. I understand that if I do use the property as a secondary residence during such five-year period, my use of the property may be considered to be inconsistent with the certifications I have made herein. Note: The term "secondary residence" includes, without limitation, a second home, vacation home or other type of residence that I personally use or occupy on a part-time, seasonal or other basis.

3. I do not own more than five (5) single-family homes (i.e., one-to-four unit properties) (exclusive of my principal residence).

Notwithstanding the foregoing certifications, I may at any time sell the property, occupy it as my principal residence, or permit my legal dependent, parent or grandparent to occupy it as their principal residence with no rent charged or collected, none of which will be considered to be inconsistent with the certifications made herein.

This certification is effective on the date I signed this form or the date the RMA is received by your Servicer.

Dodd-Frank Certification

The following information is requested by the federal government in accordance with the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Pub. I certify under penalty of perjury that I have not been convicted within the last 10 years of any one of the following in connection with a mortgage or real estate transaction:

- (a) felony larceny, theft, fraud, or forgery,
- (b) money laundering or
- (c) tax evasion.

I understand that the servicer, the U.S. Department of the Treasury, or their respective agents may investigate the accuracy of my statements by performing routine background checks, including automated searches of federal, state and county databases, to confirm that I have not been convicted of such crimes. I also understand that knowingly submitting false information may violate Federal law. This certification is effective on the date I signed this form or the date this RMA is received by your servicer.

Borrower and Co-Borrower Acknowledgment and Agreement

1. I certify that all of the information in this RMA is truthful and the hardship(s) identified above has contributed to submission of this request for mortgage relief.

2. I understand and acknowledge that the Servicer, the U.S. Department of the Treasury, the owner or guarantor of my mortgage loan, or their respective agents may investigate the accuracy of my statements, may require me to provide additional supporting documentation and that knowingly submitting false information may violate Federal and other applicable law.

3. I authorize and give permission to the Servicer, the U.S. Department of Treasury, and their respective agents, to assemble and use a current consumer report on all borrowers obligated on the loan to investigate each borrower's eligibility for MHA and the accuracy of my statements and any documentation that I provide in connection with my request for assistance. I understand that these consumer reports may include, without limitation, a credit report, and be assembled and used at any point during the application process to assess each borrower's eligibility thereafter.

4. I understand that if I have intentionally defaulted on my existing mortgage, engaged in fraud or if it is determined that any of my statements or any information contained in the documentation that I provide are materially false and that I was ineligible for assistance under MHA, the Servicer, the U.S. Department of the Treasury, or their respective agents may terminate my participation in MHA, including any right to future benefits and incentives that otherwise would have been available under the program, and also may seek other remedies available at law and in equity, such as recouping any benefits or incentives previously received.

5. I certify that any property for which I am requesting assistance is a habitable residential property that is not subject to a condemnation notice.
6. I certify that I am willing to provide all requested documents and to respond to all Servicer communications in a timely manner. I understand that time is of the essence.
7. I understand that the Servicer will use the information I provide to evaluate my eligibility for available relief options and foreclosure alternatives, but the Servicer is not obligated to offer me assistance based solely on the representations in this document or other documentation submitted in connection with my request.
8. I am willing to commit to credit counseling if it is determined that my financial hardship is related to excessive debt.
9. If I am eligible for assistance under MHA, and I accept and agree to all terms of an MHA notice, plan or agreement, I also agree that the terms of this Acknowledgment and Agreement are incorporated into such notice, plan or agreement by references as if set forth therein full. My first timely payment, if required, following my Servicer's determination and notification of my eligibility or prequalification for MHA assistance will serve as my acceptance of the terms set forth in the notice, plan, or agreement sent to me.
10. I understand that the Servicer will collect and record personal information, including, but not limited to, my name, address, telephone number, Social Security number, credit score, income, payment history, government monitoring information, and information about account balances and activity. - Never make your mortgage payments to anyone other than your mortgage company without their approval.

This communication is an attempt to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose. However, if you have received a discharge of this debt in bankruptcy or are currently in a bankruptcy case, this notice is not intended as an attempt to collect a debt and, this company has a security interest in the property and will only exercise its right as against the property.

The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex or marital status, or age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Customer Assistance Group, 1301 McKinney Street, Suite 3450, Houston, TX 77010-9050.

NEXT STEPS

Here is what will happen now.

Please read this section carefully to understand what you can expect from this process.

- A. Once we receive all of your documentation and verify your information, we will determine whether you qualify for a Home Affordable Modification of your loan. If you do, we will send you a Home Affordable Modification Trial Period Plan Notice which will outline your next steps and obligations for the trial.
- B. Under the Trial Period Plan, you will be required to make trial period payments, instead of your regular mortgage loan payments. The trial period payments should be close to the amount you would pay under a modification. Near the end of the trial period, we will be able to calculate the final amount and the final terms of your modified loan. Then we will send you two copies of the Home Affordable Modification Agreement for your signature.
- C. Please note that it may take up to 30 days for us to review your documents, after we receive all required documentation. We will process your request as quickly as possible. While we consider your request, any scheduled foreclosure sale will not occur pending our determination. However, if you fail to comply with the terms of the Trial Period Plan and do not make other arrangements with us, your loan will be enforced according to its original terms. This could include foreclosure.

OTHER OPTIONS

Even if this program doesn't work for you, we still may be able to help.

We will contact you if you do not qualify for this program. If you do not qualify, we will want to discuss other alternatives with you that may help you keep your home or ease your transition to another home.

NO FEES. There are no fees under the Home Affordable Modification program.

TRIAL PERIOD PLAN/MODIFICATION PROCESS. Submitting all required documentation to be considered for the program is the first step. If you are eligible for the program, you will need to successfully complete a "trial period" by making trial period payments. Once we are able to finalize your modified loan terms near the end of this trial period, we will send you a loan modification agreement ("Modification Agreement"), which will reflect the terms of your modified loan. In addition to successfully completing the trial period, you will need to sign and promptly return to us both copies of the Modification Agreement or your loan can not be modified.

NEW PRINCIPAL BALANCE. Any past due amounts as of the end of the trial period, including unpaid interest, real estate taxes, insurance premiums, and certain assessments paid on your behalf to a third party will be added to your mortgage loan balance (the "Past Due Arrearage Amount"). If you fulfill the terms of the trial period including, but not limited to, making the trial period payments, we will waive ALL unpaid late charges at the end of the trial period.

ESTIMATED MONTHLY PAYMENT. At this time, we are not able to calculate precisely the Past Due Arrearage Amount or the amount of the modified loan payment that will be due after successful completion of the trial period. As we near the end of the trial period, we will calculate any past due amount to determine your new permanent monthly payment and other modified loan terms.

ESCROW ACCOUNT. The terms of your Trial Payment Plan and your Modification Agreement will require the servicer to set aside a portion of your new monthly payment in an escrow account for payment of your property taxes, insurance premiums and other required fees. Your current loan may also require escrows. If it does not, the previous waiver of escrows is cancelled under your Trial Period Plan. The servicer will draw on this account to pay your real estate taxes and insurance premiums as they come due. Please note that your escrow payment amount will adjust if your taxes, insurance premiums and/or assessment amounts change, so the amount of your monthly payment that the servicer must place in escrow will also adjust as permitted by law. This means that your monthly payment may change.

BORROWER INCENTIVE. If your monthly mortgage payment (principal, interest, property taxes, hazard insurance, flood insurance, condominium association fees and homeowner's association fees, as applicable, but excluding mortgage insurance) is reduced through the Home Affordable Modification Program by six percent or more and if you make your modified monthly mortgage payments on time, you will accrue a monthly benefit equal to the lesser of: (i) $83.33 or (ii) one-half of the reduction in your monthly mortgage payment. As long as your mortgage loan does not become 90 days delinquent, we will apply your accrued monthly benefit to your mortgage loan and reduce your principal balance after each of the first through fifth anniversaries of the month in which the Trial Period Plan is executed. If your modified mortgage loan ever becomes 90 days delinquent, you will lose all accrued but unapplied principal reduction benefits and you will no longer be eligible to accrue additional principal reduction benefits even if the mortgage loan is later brought current.

CREDIT COUNSELING. If you have very high levels of debt, you will be required to obtain credit counseling under the Home Affordable Modification Program.

CREDIT REPORTING. Your credit score may be affected by accepting a trial period plan or modification. For more information about your credit score, go to <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/edu/pubs/consumer/credit/cre24.shtm>.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT ESCROW & PAYMENTS

Remember: You need to complete, sign and return the required documents as soon as possible.

Important Escrow Information:

- Having an escrow account is a condition of the Home Affordable Modification Program. You will be required to have an escrow account to pay all future property taxes, and insurance premiums if you are approved for a Trial Plan.
- If you have delinquent property taxes or insurance premiums, we will make those payments including all interest and penalties. We will then include those amounts in your new or existing escrow account.
- If you are currently responsible for paying your own property tax and/or insurance premiums, please continue to make those payments as usual until you return this signed package.

Important Payment Information:

- If your payments are being electronically withdrawn, whether by us or any other provider, it is your responsibility to have withdrawals stopped if and when it is appropriate, but this would most likely be when you move from your current payment to a trial period payment.
- If you need Wells Fargo to cancel your withdrawals, please call us at 1-866-386-8519 (Monday-Friday 6 a.m. to 10 pm CST and Saturday 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.) at least 5 business days prior to the date you wish to have the withdrawals stopped.
- If you would like to use our Wells Fargo Easy Pay process to make your trial period payments by phone, please contact us at 1-866-412-6942.

Note: You will receive a form to re-start automatic, on-going electronic withdrawals when your loan is formally modified at the end of your trial period.

Mortgage Assistance Relief Scams: Another Potential Stress for Homeowners in Distress

The possibility of losing your home to foreclosure can be terrifying. The reality that scam artists are preying on desperate homeowners is equally frightening. Many companies say they can get a change to your loan that will reduce your monthly mortgage payment or take other steps to save your home. Some claim that nearly all their customers get successful results and even offer a money-back guarantee. Others say they're affiliated with the government or your lender and still others promise the help of attorneys or real estate experts.

Unfortunately, many companies use half-truths and even outright lies to sell their services. They promise relief, but don't deliver. In fact, many of these companies leave their homeowner customers in worse financial shape.

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC), the nation's consumer protection agency, has a Rule in place to protect homeowners. The Mortgage Assistance Relief Services (MARS) Rule makes it illegal for companies to collect any fees until a homeowner has actually received an offer of relief from his or her lender and accepted it. That means even if you agree to have a company help you, you don't have to pay until it gets you the result you want.

If you're struggling to make mortgage payments or facing foreclosure, the FTC wants you to know how to recognize a mortgage assistance relief scam and exercise your rights under the new Rule. And even if the foreclosure process has already begun, the FTC and its law enforcement partners want you to know that legitimate options are available to help save your home.

HOW THE SCAMS WORK

Fraudsters use a variety of tactics to find homeowners in distress. Some sift through public foreclosure notices in newspapers and on the internet or through public files at local government offices, and then send personalized letters to homeowners. Others take a broader approach through ads on the internet, on television or radio, or in newspapers; posters on telephone poles, median strips, and at bus stops; or flyers, business cards, or people at your front door. The scam artists use simple – but potentially deceptive – messages, like:

“Stop foreclosure now!”

“Get a loan modification!”

“Over 90% of our customers get results.”

“We have special relationships with banks that can speed up the approval process.”

“Keep Your Home. We know your home is scheduled to be sold. No Problem!”

Once they have your attention, they use a variety of tactics to get your money. By knowing how their scams work, the FTC says you'll be better able to defend against fraud.

Phony Counseling or Phantom Help

The scam artists tell you that if you pay them a fee, they'll negotiate a deal with your lender to reduce your mortgage payments or to save your home. They may claim to be attorneys or represent a law firm. They may tell you not to contact your lender, lawyer, or credit counselor. They promise to handle all the details once you pay them a fee. Then they stop returning your calls and take off with your money.

Sometimes, phony counselors insist you make your mortgage payments directly to them while they negotiate with the lender. They may collect a few months of payments – and then disappear.

The “Forensic Audit”

In exchange for an upfront fee, so-called forensic loan “auditors,” mortgage loan “auditors,” or foreclosure prevention “auditors” offer to have an attorney or other expert review your mortgage documents to determine if your lender complied with the law.

The “auditors” say you can use their report to avoid foreclosure, speed the loan modification process, reduce what you owe, or even cancel your loan. In fact, there's no evidence that forensic loan audits will help you get a loan modification or any other mortgage relief.

Rent-to-Buy Schemes

Con artists who use the rent-to-buy scheme tell you to surrender the title to your house as part of a deal that allows you to stay there as a renter and buy it back later. They say that surrendering the title will let a borrower with a better credit rating get new financing and prevent the loss of the home. But the terms of these deals usually are so expensive that buying back your home becomes impossible. You lose the house and the scam artist walks off with the money you put into it. Worse, when the new borrower defaults on the loan, you're the one who's evicted.

In a variation, the scam artist raises the rent over time so you can't afford it. After missing several rent payments, you're evicted, leaving the “rescuer” free to sell the house.

In a similar equity-skimming scam, fraudsters offer to find a buyer for your home, but only if you sign over the deed and move out. They promise to pay you a portion of the profit when the home sells. Once you transfer the deed, they simply rent out the home and pocket the proceeds while your lender goes ahead with the foreclosure. The result: You lose your home – and you're still responsible for the unpaid mortgage because transferring the deed does nothing to transfer what you owe on the mortgage.

Bait-and-Switch

In a bait-and-switch scam, con artists give you papers they claim you need to sign to get another loan to make your mortgage current. But buried in the stack is a document that surrenders the title to your house to the scammers in exchange for a “rescue” loan.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

The FTC's MARS Rule gives you rights – and sets out requirements for people who sell mortgage assistance relief services:

You don't have to pay any money until the company delivers the results you want. It's illegal for a company to charge you a penny until:

- 1 it's given you a written offer for a loan modification or other relief from your lender; and
- 2 you accept the offer. The company also must give you a document from your lender showing the changes to your loan if you decide to accept your lender's offer. And the company must clearly tell you the total fee it will charge you for its services.

Companies must disclose key information.

The Rule requires companies to spell out important information in their advertisements and telemarketing calls, including that:

- They're not associated with the government, and their services have not been approved by the government or your lender;
- Your lender may not agree to change your loan;
- If a company tells you to stop paying your mortgage, it also has to warn you that doing so could result in your losing your home and damaging your credit.
- Companies can't tell you to stop talking to your lender. You should always feel free to contact your lender directly to see whether they can offer you additional options. Companies that tell you otherwise are breaking the law.

If a company doesn't follow these rules, it could be trying to scam you.

GETTING HELP FROM A LAWYER

Some lawyers may offer to help you get a loan modification or other mortgage relief. Under the MARS Rule, lawyers can require you to pay an upfront fee, but only if:

- They're licensed to practice law in the state where you live or your house is located;
- They're providing you with real legal services;
- They're complying with state ethics requirements for attorneys; and
- They place the money in a client trust account, withdraw fees only as they complete actual legal services, and notify you of each withdrawal.

Unfortunately, some people advertising mortgage assistance relief services falsely claim to be getting you help from lawyers. So before you hire someone who claims to be an attorney or claims to work with attorneys, do your homework:

- Get the name of each attorney who'll be helping you, the state or states where the attorney is licensed, and the attorney's license number in each state. Your state has a licensing organization – or "bar" – that monitors attorney conduct. Call your state bar or check its website to see if an attorney you're thinking of hiring has gotten into trouble. The National Organization of Bar Counsel has links to your state bar: www.nobc.org/Bar_Associations_and_Disciplinary_Authorities.aspx
- Ask relatives, friends, and others you trust for the name of an attorney with a proven record of getting help for homeowners facing foreclosure.
- Beware of attorneys who make bold promises or try to pressure you into hiring them.

WARNING SIGNS

If you're looking for a loan modification or other help to save your home, avoid any business that:

- guarantees to get you a loan modification or stop the foreclosure process – no matter what your circumstances;
- tells you not to contact your lender, lawyer, or housing counselor;

- claims that all or most of its customers get loan modifications or mortgage relief;
- asks for an upfront fee before providing you with any services (unless it's a lawyer you've checked out thoroughly);
- accepts payment only by cashier's check or wire transfer;
- encourages you to lease your home so you can buy it back over time;
- tells you to make your mortgage payments directly to it, rather than your lender;
- tells you to transfer your property deed or title to it;
- offers to buy your house for cash for much lower than the selling price of similar houses in your neighborhood; or
- pressures you to sign papers you haven't had a chance to read thoroughly or that you don't understand.

WHERE TO FIND LEGITIMATE HELP

If you're having trouble paying your mortgage or have gotten a foreclosure notice, contact your lender immediately. You may be able to negotiate a new repayment schedule.

Other foreclosure prevention options, including reinstatement and forbearance, are explained in Mortgage Payments Sending You Reeling? Here's What to Do, a publication from the FTC. Find it at ftc.gov/yourhome.

You also may contact a credit counselor through the Homeownership Preservation Foundation (HPF), a nonprofit organization that operates the national 24/7 toll-free hotline (1.888.995.HOPE) with free, bilingual, personalized assistance to help at-risk homeowners avoid foreclosure. HPF is a member of the HOPE NOW Alliance of mortgage servicers, mortgage market participants and counselors. More information about HOPE NOW is at hopenow.com.

Report Fraud

If you think you've been the victim of foreclosure fraud, contact the Federal Trade Commission, ftc.gov, or your state Attorney General's office, naag.org or the Better Business Bureau, bbb.org.
