

WHEELS FOR WORK

Funded in part by the United Way of Yellowstone County, the Wheels for Work program is designed to remove transportation barriers that often prevent low-income individuals from maintaining employment.

Who is eligible?

This program is available to individuals residing in Yellowstone County only. Participants must have income below 125% of Federal Poverty Guidelines and provide 30-days income verification (earned and unearned) for each household member over 18 years old.

Is the program available for homeless youth?

Yes. Homeless youth, ages 16-18, may request a one time service for transportation to work sites, training opportunities or Alternative Education resources.

What types of supportive services are available? Wheels for Work is designed to assist low-income individuals in a number of ways including gas vouchers, bus passes, and limited vehicle repairs.

How often can I obtain support?

This program is limited to one-time assistance per household per year.

Do I have to be working to apply for a bus pass?

In order to obtain a bus pass you must be currently employed or seeking employment. Once determined eligible you can receive a 10-punch bus pass.

What is expected of me to receive a gas voucher or car repair for my vehicle?

When applying for a car repair or gas voucher, you must submit copies of your driver's license, car registration, and current car insurance. In order to receive a gas voucher you must be seeking employment or currently employed. For minor car repairs, you must be currently employed and provide two written cost estimates; phone estimates are not accepted. Please contact a Case Manager at 406-247-4700 to discuss eligible repair options.

Where can I pick up an application?

Applications may be picked up at 7 North 31st Street in Billings, Montana at the 2nd floor front desk, or you can request one be mailed to you.
